

GARDENING GROUP

It seems a long time since Christmas!!

The Christmas decorations have been packed away for another year and your gardening group has had its winter break, during which the cyclamen put on a lovely display on the promenade.

The winter heathers and spring bulbs are in flower and now that the days are lengthening noticeably, we are back on the promenade on Monday mornings weather permitting.

Happy Gardening.

Brian Lewis