

Local Explorers

On Wednesday 12th August, fourteen members of the Local Explorers Group met at Farfield Mill in Sedbergh. David Ramsbottom led some of the group on a short walk by the river which was then followed by refreshments at the Mill Tea Room. Members were then free to explore the Mill, its history and the wonderful work on display by local, national and international artists.

Farfield Mill is a restored Victorian woollen mill which is now open to the public as a creative hub. The Mill ceased woollen production in the early 1990's after 156 years producing textiles.
